

Name	Edmond Jajaga, Assist. Prof. Dr.
Position	Researcher	Title	PhD	Gender	M
CV	Edmond Jajaga is assistant professor in Mother Teresa University and University for Business and Technology. He received his PhD in 2017 in Computer Sciences from South East European University (SEEU), North Macedonia. He has published in renowned international venues in the areas of Semantic Web, Software Applications Development, Databases, Stream Reasoning and eLearning. Since 2012 he has been involved on a number of international projects including InWaterSense, DISCO, PHDICTKES and staff mobility projects. He has been working as software engineer for about 12 years at the eLearning Center of the SEEU and Edusoft. In the past he has worked as a visiting professor at the University of New York Tirana and as a teaching assistant at the State University of Tetova and University of Prishtina.

